It contains the full contents of Frost's: A Boy's Will (1913), North of Boston (1914), and Mountain Interval (1916). It also contains a selection of poems from New Hampshire (1923), West-Running Brook (1928) and A Further Range (1928). Most importantly for me it contains what is widely regarded as Frost's most popular poem (and the one that most people even if they have never heard of Robert Frost are likely to have heard parts of at some time or other), The Road Not Taken.
